

Dear Customer,

It is the policy of Riverside Foods to ensure products containing genetically modified ingredients are properly labeled to the satisfaction of USDA requirements. Riverside Foods adheres to the guidelines laid out in the National Bioengineered Food Disclosure Standard to require food manufacturers, importers, and other entities that label foods for retail sale to disclose information about bioengineered food and bioengineered food ingredients.

All items produced by Riverside Foods for Jetto Cash & Carry contain ingredients that have detectable bioengineered DNA or proteins.

The facility implements a Label Program and verification Policy to ensure that all items are correctly identified and USDA requirements are being followed.

F5783 Restaurant Depot BIG-C Homestyle Natural White Cheddar Curds produced by Riverside Foods are a bioengineered food product.
